

2012-2013

St. Paul's Episcopal Friends of Music Guild Concert Series

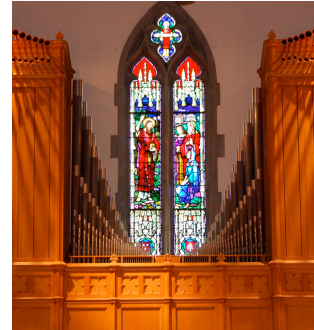

featuring:

- a Big Band Concert featuring The Jazz Conspiracy
- a concert of music for Brass, Organ, and percussion, featuring members of the West Point Military Band's Brass
- Vocal Artist-in-Residence Katy Williams
- The men's choral ensemble "Believe"
- a South Hills Multi-Organist Recital
- The Kenyon College Chamber Singers

and

- come see 3,000 singers from area church, civic, and university choirs join with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra for a choral concert like no other!

Sunday, September 30th
3:00 PM

South Hills Multi-Organist Recital

Organists Benjamin Cornelius-Bates, Nicholas Will, David Schaap, and Bryan Sable and Doug Starr from St. Paul's will be playing their favorite organ works at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Each recitalist will play 10-15 minutes on our wonderful Schantz organ.

Free-Will Offering will be taken.

Sunday, October 14st
3:00 PM

"Believe"

"Believe" is a volunteer men's vocal ensemble comprised mainly of members of the Christ UMC (Bethel Park) Chancel Choir. The group includes basses John Heisey, Bruce Klimcheck, and Jeff Nelson; tenors George Manos, Dick Slater, and St. Paul's own Rich Williams, plus talented accompanist Debbie Schneider. This program will feature an eclectic mix of musical styles, from spirituals to show tunes and from the ridiculous to the sublime!

Free-Will Offering will be taken.

Sunday, November 11th
3:00 PM

A Big Band Concert
featuring
The Jazz Conspiracy

The Jazz Conspiracy is a jazz-oriented ensemble comprised of Pittsburgh-area musicians, whose main goal is to perform outstanding American music, from original big band charts to modern arrangements. One review relates, "The Jazz Conspiracy, the world's foremost jazz ensemble, is comprised of an improbable collection of extraordinary musicians, whose ensemble playing is only surpassed by their improvisational skills."

Admission Donation: $10

Sunday, February 17th
3:00 PM

Music for Brass, Organ
and Percussion

Music for Brass and Organ and Percussion will feature two members of the West Point US Military Band's West Point Brass- Staff Sergeant Bill Owens, Trumpet; and, Staff Sergeant Curtis Starr, Trombone. Accompanied by Douglas Starr, organ and Tommy Starr, percussion, the program will feature Aaron Copeland's "Fanfare for the Common Man," sonatas for organ and brass by Dario Castello, J. S. Bach transcriptions for organ, and brass and other works.

Admission Donation: $10

Thursday, March 7th
7:00 PM

Kenyon College
Chamber Singers

The Kenyon College Chamber Singers, conducted by Dr. Benjamin Locke, will be performing on Thursday, March 7 at 7:00 p.m. This performance is part of Kenyon's 2013 Spring Tour. The Chamber Singers, consisting of fifty-four undergraduates chosen by competitive audition, is Kenyon's premier touring ensemble. The group is noted for its versatility of vocal style and broad repertoire.

Admission Donation: $10

Saturday, April 20th
7:30 PM

Singing City Concert

St. Paul's Chancel Choir will join with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and 3,000 singers from area church, civic, and university choirs in a concert at the Petersen Events Center on the campus of the University of Pittsburgh. The concert is entitled Singing City and will kick off a weeklong Music for the Spirit Festival. The repertoire will feature the final movement of Mahler's Resurrection Symphony and other works for choir and orchestra.

TICKETS WILL BE SOLD

(Please contact us for more information!)

Sunday, May 19th
3:00 PM

Katy Williams

Katy Williams, Vocal Artist-in-Residence at St. Paul's Episcopal Church sings Samuel Barber: Knoxville-Summer of 1915 and other works by Mozart, Ardit, Strauss and more!

Come enjoy beautiful music in a beautiful space.

Admission Donation: $10