

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
Standing Committee Actions
Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh

At the January 29, 2011 meeting of the Standing Committee, held at St. Thomas Church, Oakmont, the following matters were considered and/or actions taken:

1. The Rev. Jeffrey Murph was elected President and Ms. Mary Roehrich was elected Secretary.
2. Consents were given to the election of the Rev. Rayford Jeffrey Ray as Bishop Diocesan of the Diocese of Northern Michigan and to the Rev. Ralph William Franklin as Bishop Diocesan of the Diocese of Western New York.
3. The Bishop led a discussion of the role of the Standing Committee in the process of discerning ordination candidates.
4. It was determined that the consecration of the Eighth Bishop of Pittsburgh will occur at Calvary Church, East Liberty, in October 2012, upon the recommendation of the Transition Committee.
5. A meeting time and place was set for the 2011 Standing Committee: 9:15am on the second Monday of the month at Trinity Cathedral.
6. Goals of the 2010 Standing Committee were discussed and evaluated. A discussion began on goals for the 2011 Standing Committee
7. The Rev. Dr. Bruce Robison reported on the joint clergy conference, led by the CREDO Institute, for the clergy of the Diocese of Pittsburgh and the Diocese of Northwest Pennsylvania to be held April 6-8, 2011.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Jeffrey Murph, President
Ms. Mary Roehrich, Secretary
