

July 3, 2019

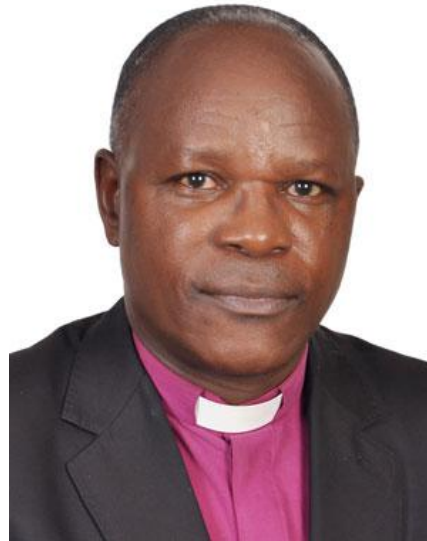

Yesterday's article about the Archbishop of Burundi's visit to Oakmont incorrectly stated the day and date. The corrected article is below.

Evensong to Welcome the Archbishop of Burundi to Oakmont

On Friday, July 5, at 7:30 p.m., St. Thomas Church in Oakmont will welcome the Archbishop and Primate of the Anglican Church of Burundi, the Most Rev. Martin Blaise Nyaboho.

Burundi is a country in central Africa, in the Rift Valley, bordering Rwanda, Tanzania and the Congo.

Archbishop Nyaboho arrives in the United States for a short visit to preach and also to visit his daughter and son-in-law who are parishioners of St. Thomas Church, Patiente Irakoze and Samuel Manirakiza.

The Archbishop will preach at the Evensong and will be welcomed at a reception to be held in his honor following the service. In 1997, Archbishop Nyaboho was consecrated as the first bishop of the Diocese of Makamba and now serves as Archbishop of the province.

St. Thomas Memorial Church, 378 Delaware Avenue, Oakmont, PA 15139

Observing Independence day

The diocesan offices will be closed on Thursday and Friday, July 4 and 5, in observance of Independence Day. Have a happy and safe 4th of July.

All submissions to the Grace Happens newsletter and the diocesan web site are welcome and should be sent to amuhl@episcopalpgh.org. When possible, the copy should be in a Word document and all original logos, pictures and artwork should be attached separately. Please be sure to include your contact information with any submission.

